Camden Cyclists News: October 2022

Dear John,

In this month's news we have:

- Free London drivers from the tyranny of owning cars - CEO of LCC
- Our next meeting on 17th October at 7:30 pm
- LCC's community skills summit, Saturday 15th October
- Silvertown Tunnel - Digging has started..so what next? Sunday 9th October
- 'Make The Lane' makes the news on Car Free day
- KTBW resumes as drop-in, 10th October

'London drivers need freeing from the tyranny of owning cars'

Dr Ashok Sinha, chief executive of LCC

London drivers need to be freed from the "burden" of owning cars by massive improvements in public transport and new road charging measures. Dr Ashok Sinha told a Labour fringe conference on transport that some 10 million car journeys are made every day in London - a figure that needs to come down dramatically to reach UK's climate targets and tackle air pollution.

'Make The Lane' makes the news

Cyclists form 'human barrier' in Old Street safety protest

On World Car-free Day (22nd September), members & supporters from CCC & CI formed a "human barrier" to protect other riders from vehicles in protest at the lack of action to improve safety on one of London's most dangerous routes near to Old Street, to highlight the dangers of the Old Street to Holborn route, once referred to as a potential "Clerkenwell boulevard". The event was spurred by "eight years of inaction", despite promises from borough councils and TfL in the wake of hundreds of injuries and a spate of fatalities around the Holborn gyratory.
